

dental cleanings, fillings and crowns, root canals, refractive eye exams, and exams for hearing aids.

It provides coverage of items such as dentures, eyeglasses, contact lenses, low vision devices, and hearing aids as durable medical equipment, prosthetics, and orthotic supplies.

And to control costs and facilitate implementation of these major reforms, benefits will be subject to reasonable limitations and will be phased in gradually in the years following enactment.

All too often, policy discussions about Medicare focus on how much of the program to cut and how to further shift costs onto beneficiaries. This is the wrong approach. It's time for Congress to recognize that Medicare must be strengthened, not cut, and that benefits must be expanded, not scaled back.

The Medicare Dental, Vision, and Hearing Benefit Act will make Medicare a stronger, fairer, and more comprehensive program for the 55 million beneficiaries it serves.

I urge my colleagues to join me in working to enact this and other important expansions of Medicare now and in the future.

CONGRATULATING THE PHILIPPINES ON ITS 118TH ANNIVERSARY OF ITS INDEPENDENCE

HON. MADELEINE Z. BORDALLO

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 7, 2016

Ms. BORDALLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Republic of Philippines on the 118th Anniversary of its independence. I also join the people of Guam and the Filipino Community of Guam in declaring the month of June as Philippine Month in Guam.

On May 1, 1898, the Battle of Manila Bay signaled the United States' entry into the war with Spain that the Philippines had been fighting for since 1896. On June 12, 1898 the Filipino revolutionary forces under General Emilio Aguinaldo proclaimed the sovereignty and independence of the Philippine Islands from Spanish colonial rule. Filipinos are very proud of these leaders who had the dream of an independent and free country. This act of determining their political future remains a much celebrated event 118 years later, especially by Filipinos who call the United States and Guam home.

Since earning their independence, the Philippine people have suffered through years of dictatorship, martial law, and Japanese occupation. We on Guam are particularly sympathetic to this last event, having ourselves been taken over by the Japanese.

Today, the Philippines is an important ally of the United States in Southeast Asia. President Aquino has taken positive steps to combat terrorism in the Philippines, and his government continues to be cooperative with our own efforts in the region. In addition, the friendship of the Filipino people has forged a bond between our two nations that has grown stronger over time. Filipino-Americans have contributed immensely to our nation. In my home district of Guam, Filipino-Americans represent over one-third of the general population. They play a key role in the economic, social, and political fabric of our island and the nation as a whole. Guam and the Philippines share linguistic, social, and cultural roots which have made Filipinos on Guam able to be active in celebrating their culture in harmony with the local community. Many Filipinos and members of the Filipino Community of Guam have contributed their time, talents and expertise by serving as medical, educational, and government professionals and religious leaders, among others, to improve the quality of life on Guam. The Filipino Community of Guam has also been passionately dedicated to helping those in need by supporting numerous charitable non-profit organizations on our island and they have organized fundraising drives for disaster victims in the Micronesia region and the Philippines.

Our two nations and indeed our people are intimately linked to one another. On behalf of the people of Guam, I congratulate the Philippines and the Filipino Community of Guam on the 118th anniversary of independence of the Philippines and look forward to the continued service and contributions of the Filipino Community of Guam.
